📍 KALIMPONG, WEST BENGAL

Sustainable Living, Rooted in the Hills

~ About Adambari Gardens

Adambari Gardens is a thoughtfully restored villa in Kalimpong, offering 5 rooms and suites inspired by Bhutanese-Nepali heritage. Set among terraced gardens and shaded by towering pines, its colonial-era architecture blends with eco-friendly design. Organic kitchen gardens, solar-lit pathways, and rainwater harvesting reflect our commitment to sustainability, while cosy fireplaces and panoramic mountain views invite you to unwind.

~ Immersive Experiences

At Adambari Gardens, every moment is an invitation to connect with Kalimpong's landscape and culture. Begin with garden-fresh breakfasts on the verandah, stroll through orchards to harvest vegetables for your lunch, or join a guided herb-foraging walk. As dusk falls, savour candlelit dinners in our wood-panelled dining room, sip herbal teas in the gazebo, or cosy up by the fireplace.

~ Culinary Delights

Our chefs celebrate Himalayan flavours with dishes like Ema Datshi, Dal Bhat, and Kewa Datshi using organic produce from our garden. Enjoy high tea in the orchid-lined gazebo, sample homemade sel roti and yomari at breakfast, or request a fireside dinner featuring Phaksha Paa and gundruk soup. Every meal at this Kalimpong villa is a sustainable feast of local heritage.

~ About Kalimpong, West Bengal

Kalimpong perches on a ridge above the Teesta River, known for its colonial architecture, Buddhist monasteries, and orchid nurseries. The town's mix of Nepali, Bhutanese, and Tibetan influences is reflected in its vibrant culture, handicrafts, and scenic viewpoints, making it an ideal base for mountain adventures and cultural immersion.
