~ Culinary Delights

Dining at Anand Bhawan Palace is a regal yet homely experience, steeped in regional heritage. Breakfasts in the garden bring fresh farm produce, breads, and traditional North Indian favourites. Lunches and dinners celebrate rustic village-style dishes such as Baingan Bharta, pit-roasted potatoes, Desi Murga, and partridge, alongside family recipes passed down through generations. Select Nepalese dishes, introduced by Rani Bhavana Singh, add rare Himalayan flavours to the menu. Farm-to-table philosophy ensures vegetables from the estate and locally sourced fish and meats form the heart of every plate. At Anand Bhawan Palace, every meal is immersive, flavourful, and fit for its royal setting.
