OVERVIEW

- A heritage 3-bedroom, planters' bungalow, built in 1925, lovingly restored to its pristine beauty.
- Situated on an estate spanning 58,000 acres of lush tea plantations and thick forests, this spacious bungalow offers panoramic views of surrounding nature.
- A heavenly escape amidst breath-taking landscapes reflected on pristine lakes and rolling hills caressed by blankets of mist.

LOCATION

- Perched at an altitude of 2000 metres above sea level, and situated in the famous Kanan Devan hills, the bungalow truly lies in the lap of nature.
- A scenic 3.5 hour drive from Cochin International Airport and Ernakulam Railway Station, the bungalow also features a private helipad.
- A short drive away from Mattupetty Dam, where one relax, can take a boat-ride or witness numerous bird-species, and Munnar Market.

CUISINE

- The guests can savour traditional Kerala Cuisine, with family recipes passed down generations or relish delights curated with Tamilian or British influence.
- Delicacies of choice prepared using the freshest produce, from the best of spices to farm fresh harvest.
- Guests can also cook with our Bungalow Chefs and discover the authentic culinary traditions of the region.

EXPERIENCES

- A visit to the Tea Factory and Tea Museum, both a short drive away, to witness the journey and history of tea.
- Golfing at our two exclusive 9-hole golf courses, at a nominal fee.
- A tour of the surrounding tea estate, along with access to High Range Club.
