Rama Palace
Varanasi

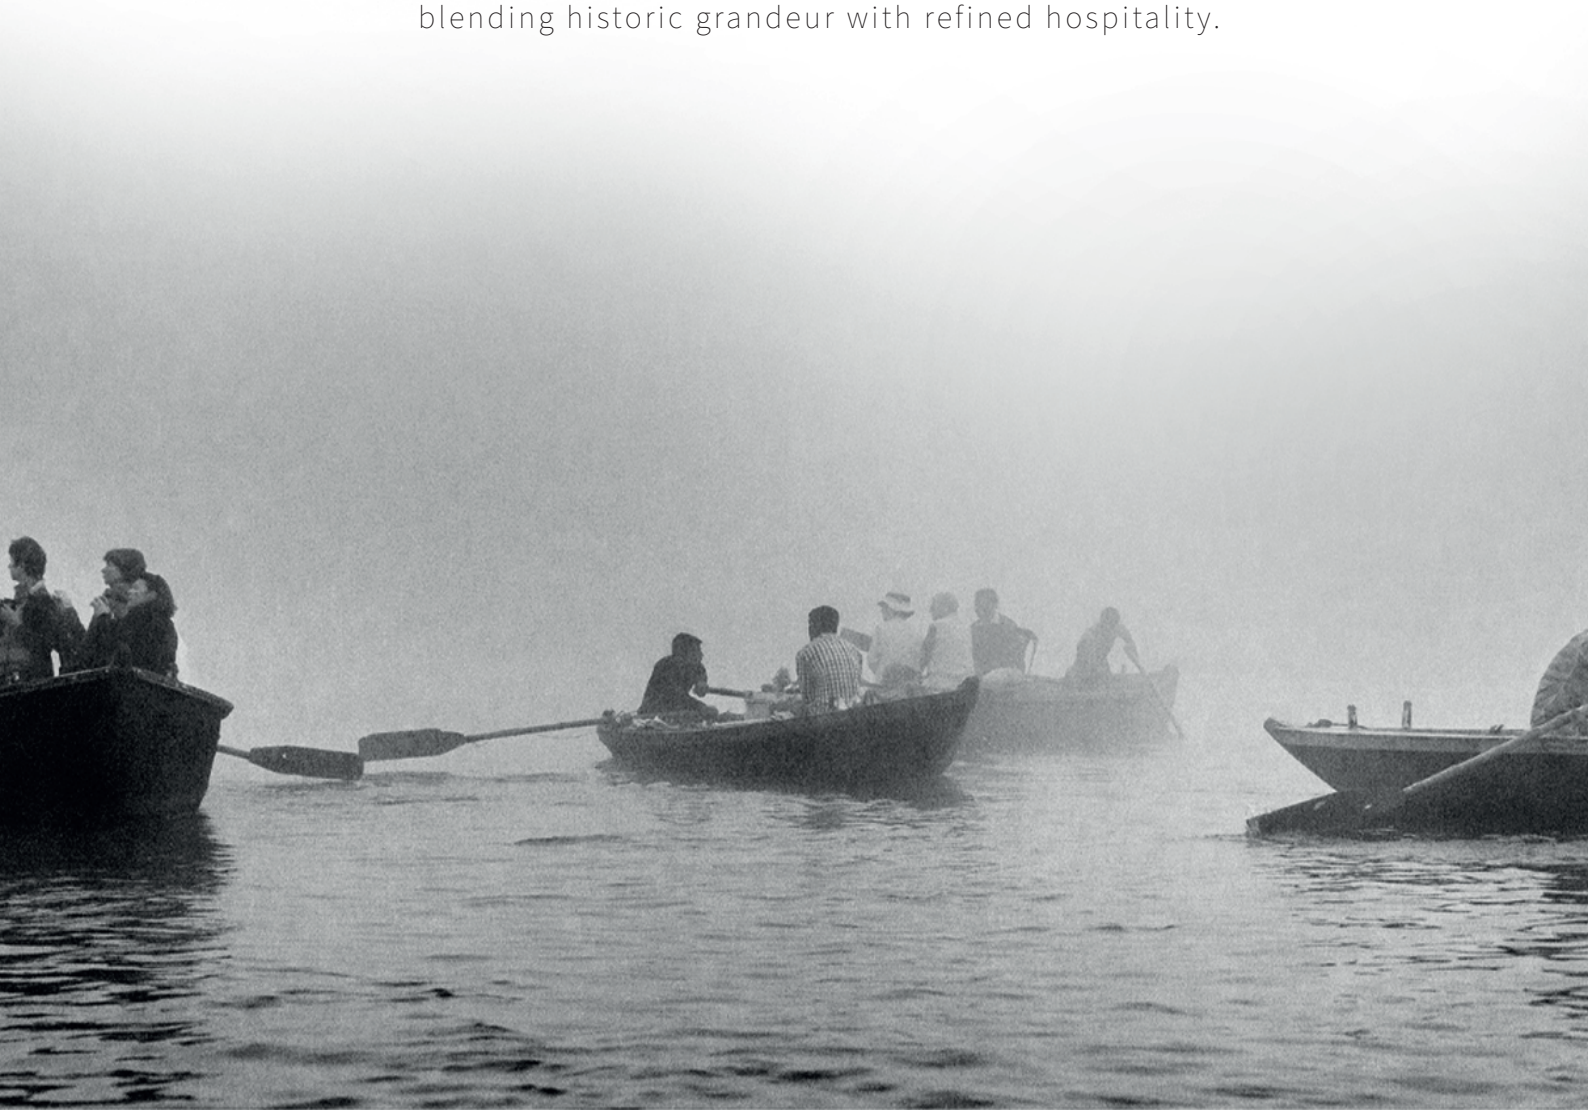

FACTSHEET

Introduction

Located on the historic Darbhanga Ghat, BrijRama Palace is a 214-year-old heritage palace and one of the oldest man-made structures along the sacred Ganges. Featuring 32 elegantly appointed rooms and suites, the palace reflects the rich culture and architectural legacy of the Maratha Dynasty.

Set in the timeless city of Varanasi — also known as Kashi — a spiritual and cultural beacon shaped by the Varuna and Assi rivers, the hotel offers a serene and immersive stay experience, blending historic grandeur with refined hospitality.

Accomodation

Thoughtfully curated rooms and suites at Brij Hotels blend restored heritage architecture with refined contemporary design, offering plush bedding, marble bathrooms, artisanal detailing, modern amenities, personalised service and an atmosphere of understated opulence and cultural sophistication.

VARUNA BURJ
Suite

Set within the semi-circular palace walls near Vishwanath Temple, the Varuna Burj Suites offer sweeping 180-degree views of the city and river. With elegant interiors and thoughtful comforts, the space feels private, refined and deeply rooted in heritage.

VASUNDHARA
Room

Walk through quiet private corridors where the past still lingers, with soft views of the Ganga beyond. As you enter your 'Earth room', Bhadohi carpets and beautiful Banarasi craftsmanship welcome you, reflecting the enduring charm of the City of Light.

MAHARAJA
Suite

The Maharaja Suite is thoughtfully designed with rich textures, elegant accents, and indulgent comforts throughout. Its signature slipper clawfoot bathtub adds a touch of drama, transforming a simple soak into a truly regal experience.

DHANURDHARA
Room

Paying tribute to Lord Shiva, the 'Wielder of the Bow' room is nestled near the terrace overlooking the Ganga. Designed with precision and authenticity, each element speaks to the soul and storied heritage of the city.

MAHIDHARA
Rooms

Mahidhara is inspired by the earth's enduring strength, offering a space that feels both grounded and beautifully composed. Rich natural textures and layered finishes create a warm, immersive retreat defined bydiscreet grandeur and nuanced exclusivity

NADIDHARA
Room

Paying homage to Lord Shiva, revered as the 'River Guardian'. This room is both sanctuary and vantage point. Bespoke finishes details frame a view of the city's vibrant streets that are alive with history, devotion and a spirit that refuses to fade.

EXPERIENCE THE feeling

CULTURAL

SUBAH-E-BANARAS

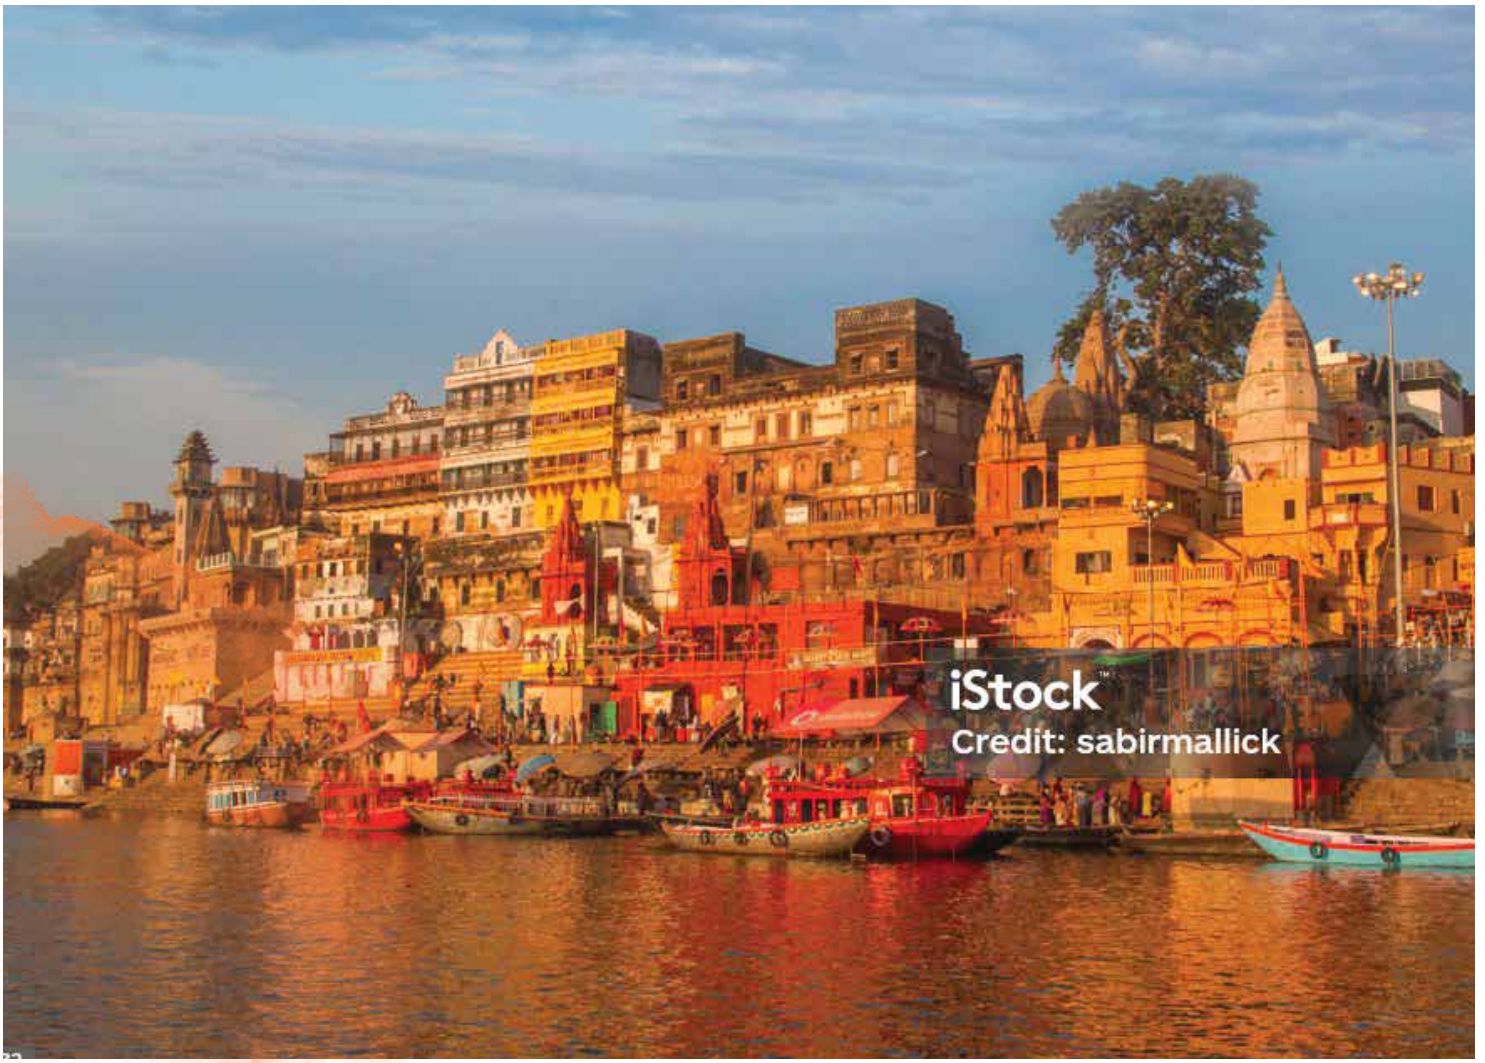

As dawn breaks over Assi Ghat, Subah-e-Banaras begins with a 45-minute aarti offered to the rising sun and the Ganga. The ritual bathes the river in golden light, marking the day's first hours with grace and reverence — and in its hymn and hush, you become part of the ritual itself.

AKHADA TOUR

Visit a traditional Akhada, where kushti is practised in sacred earth using the gada, jod and naal. Defined by ritual, discipline and early morning training, this centuries-old arena remains a powerful expression of strength, devotion and living heritage.

HOLY BATH IN THE GANGES

Experience a sacred dip in the Ganges, believed to cleanse the soul and wash away sins, as you immerse yourself in the spiritual essence of Varanasi. This timeless ritual offers a profound connection to India's ancient traditions and the sacred waters of the holy river.

REJUVENATE

KAASHI WELLNESS

Kaashi Spa, recognised by Vogue, Grazia, and Nat Geo Traveller, offers a refined sanctuary amid the city's energy. Guided by time honoured Indian wellness traditions, bespoke therapies and Himalayan botanical formulations restore balance with quiet sophistication.

YOGA

Yoga being a time-honoured discipline that enhances physical vitality, calms the mind, and fosters overall harmony. guided by experienced instructors, each practice focuses on breath, balance and mindful movement in a calm, restorative setting.

DINING

IN BRIJRAMA PALACE

AANGAN

Aangan offers a ten course set menu inspired by the three families associated with the palace for over two centuries. Each chapter reflects distinct historical influences, guiding guests through a culinary journey from Banaras's royal past to modern day Varanasi.

DARBHANGA

The hotel's all-day dining restaurant presents an elegant multi-cuisine experience. The menu showcases refined interpretations of Varanasi's regional specialties alongside thoughtfully curated Continental classics and authentic Chinese selections. Designed with understated luxury, the restaurant offers a welcoming yet sophisticated setting for guests throughout the day.

UDAYAN TERRACE

The hotel's rooftop dining venue offers sweeping views of the Ganges and Varanasi's historic ghats within an elegant open-air setting. It presents a refined selection of regional street fare and signature chaats that pay homage to the city's rich culinary heritage. Curated cultural performances complement the experience, seamlessly blending panoramic vistas, local flavours and enduring traditions into a distinctive and immersive dining experience.

AROUND BRIJRAMA PALACE

BAJRA DINNER

Set aboard an elegantly appointed traditional Bajra on the sacred Ganges, this exclusive dining experience offers an intimate view of Varanasi at twilight. As the boat drifts past illuminated ghats, guests are served a thoughtfully curated Banarasi thali crafted by the hotel's culinary team. Framed by panoramic riverfront views and the gentle cadence of temple bells, the evening unfolds in an atmosphere of quiet sophistication and timeless charm.

CULNARY TOUR

Renowned as much for its vibrant food culture as for its temples, Varanasi offers a rich tapestry of street side flavours. This guided culinary walk introduces guests to iconic local specialties, from crisp kachoris and tangy chaats to seasonal delicacies such as malaiyyo and traditional lassi. Winding through bustling markets and historic lanes, the experience provides insight into time honoured recipes and enduring food traditions. More than a tasting tour, it is an immersive exploration of the city's living culinary heritage.
