VARKALA

OVERVIEW

Just an hour north of Thiruvananthapuram, Varkala is a beachside haven where red cliffs meet the Arabian Sea and spiritual traditions thrive. Known for its sacred Janardhana Swamy Temple and rejuvenating Ayurvedic practices, this serene destination is also home to India's only global surfing competition.

Perched atop a hillock with panoramic sea views, Gateway Varkala offers sea-facing and garden-facing rooms, soulful dining at the acclaimed Coastal Kitchen, and a wellness-focused Ayurveda Centre, making it the perfect escape to unwind, recharge and reconnect.

ACCOMMODATION

Every one of our elegant rooms comes with a view. Our incredible cliff-top location ensures that the views are breathtaking whether they are of the endless miles of blue, or our very own gardens.

SUPERIOR ROOMS GARDEN VIEW

Equipped with the finest amenities, these breezy rooms look out onto our landscaped gardens. These rooms feature a spacious bathroom with a rain shower, and a balcony that is made for dewy mornings and dreamy evenings.

DELUXE SEA VIEW ROOMS

These rooms offer incredible sea views and are adorned with balconies that one can spend hours relaxing in. Equipped with the finest amenities, these rooms are among the most comfortable in all of Varkala.

PREMIUM SUITES

There is no better place to experience the Arabian Sea's serene calm as well as its prodigious power than from our sea-facing Deluxe Suite. Luxury, style, comfort and incredible views come together in our lavish suites.

DINING

Whether you are in the mood for local specialties, global favourites or sundowners, our restaurant, Coastal Kitchen, and Sunken Bar are here for you.

Coastal Kitchen

Kerala is home to a medley of flavours. From Calicut to Kasargod, Kochi to Alleppy, Thiruvananthapuram to Kollam, every region of Kerala serves up soulful specialties. And at Coastal Kitchen, you can sample all these local classics.
