

SAWAI MAN MAHAL
JAIPUR

Majestic with spaces and with a design universe of its own, is the Sawai Man Mahal. This heritage-palace pays tribute to HH Sawai Man Singh II – an Indian prince, diplomat, army-man and polo player, with expressive architecture, lush pleasure-gardens, haute-cuisine and immersive experiences. Open, airy, cocooned, Sawai Man Mahal celebrates the best of Rajputana heritage. The distinctive yellow ochre hue of the Palace comes into view as you arrive through tree lined avenues and lush gardens while an imposing entrance is flanked by two antique cannons from the royal family.

Sawai Man Mahal evokes the essence of Jaipur with design tributes. Its hall of 24 pillars mirror those at City Palace, while the grand lobby which predates even the Rambagh Palace with which it shares premises, showboats the 187 years old Golden Gate - Rambagh Palace's original gilded entrance.

Delicate thikree work, hand painted murals, the medley of tiles & stones, carefully preserved artifacts, vintage photographs and a subdued but colourful livery marks out this palace as special.

Artfully designed rooms & suites present Rajputana heritage with a contemporary flavour, while private courtyards and plunge pools exude majesty.
