WHERE TIMELESS EXPERIENCES MEET UNMATCHED HOSPITALITY

INTRODUCTION

Bekal – Kasaragod is an idyllic little town on the eastern shore of Kerala. It is most famous for the giant keyhole-shaped Bekal Fort surrounded by a golden expanse of beach and meandering backwaters.

The Taj Bekal Resort & Spa, Kerala situated in the Kasaragod district is a 'last frontier' beach destination in Kerala and is 70kms from the Mangalore Airport .The Kappil Beach is yet 'undiscovered' and extremely private. The 66 laterite-lined villas and rooms spread over 26 acres draw inspiration from the design of Kettuvallam houseboats and the décor is resplendent in Chitra Pothi art on the walls. At our best-kept secret, you can discover some of the most amazing pleasures and experiences life has to offer and rediscover the traditional nobility of Indian hospitality a mere 70 kms from the Mangalore airport.
