

TAJ
MAHAL
LUCKNOW

Taj Mahal, Lucknow is a hotel built over 80,000 sq mts of landscaped gardens, on the banks of the river Gomti. This gem offers 108 stylishly appointed guest rooms and features grand domes and beautiful pillars. Taj Mahal, Lucknow is located in the centre of Lucknow that rose to prominence under the Nawab's in the 1700s and is today the capital and largest city of the Indian State of Uttar Pradesh. It is 20 km from Chaudhary Charan Singh International Airport and 8 km from the Railway Station.

Lucknow has always been known as a multicultural city that flourished as a North Indian cultural and artistic hub, and the seat of power of Nawabs in the 18th and 19th centuries. It continues to be an important centre of governance and administration. The Taj Mahal, Lucknow draws inspiration from the rich history of the city and the influence of the British and the Nawabs. The low line colonial style architecture is encircled by exquisite trees, elegant sculpture and gardens of jacaranda, gardenia, bottle brush and has an ornamental pool bordered by marble pathways.
