EVENTS AND OCCASIONS

Taj Cape Town is steeped in history, and this is beautifully reflected in the names of its boardrooms and event spaces. Each venue carries a story, connecting the present to Cape Town's past and honouring the city's cultural and architectural heritage.

Welcome to our Conference and Banquet Spaces.

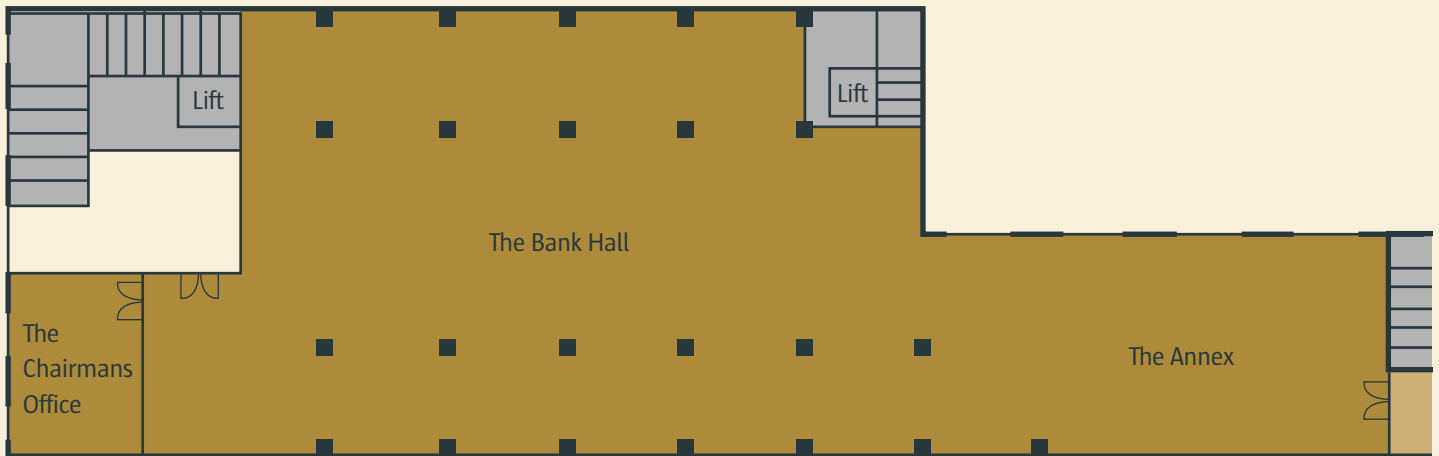

THE RESERVE

The Reserve at Taj Cape Town is a spectacular venue that blends Cape Town's financial heritage with a grandeur and sophistication of a modern event space. Once the main banking hall of the African Banking Corporation, and later Standard Bank, the space holds a deep historical significance. The Bank Hall stands as the crown jewel of The Reserve, offering a versatile setting for large-scale events while preserving its rich architectural legacy.

ABC BAR

Nestled within The Reserve at Taj Cape Town, the ABC Bar is a venue steeped in history and sophistication. Named after the African Banking Corporation (ABC) — one of South Africa's earliest financial institutions — the bar occupies a space that once played a pivotal role in shaping the country's economic landscape. Established in 1890, the African Banking Corporation was instrumental in laying the foundation for South Africa's modern banking sector. The building that now houses The Reserve was originally home to this prestigious institution before becoming Standard Bank in 1927. Today, the ABC Bar pays homage to this financial legacy, offering an elegant setting where history meets modern luxury.
