Eila Art Hotel, Naggar

Resort Highlights

'Eila' - derived from Sanskrit - means Earth. And staying true to its name, Tree of Life Eila Art Hotel rests amidst serene Deodar forests, overlooking the meandering Beas River below and framed by the majestic Dhauladhar range across. Artistic energy flows through every corner - from curated installations to cultural nods - making Eila a boutique retreat where art, literature, cuisine, and wellness come together in perfect harmony.

Your journey begins at the Gate of Confluence, inspired by the ancient inscriptions of the Mauryan period, brought to life through gold foils and colours reminiscent of Himachal's Buddhist monasteries.

This is not just a stay. It's inspiration - waiting for your arrival.

Address: We are nestled in the tranquil town of Naggar, between Kullu and Manali. Bhuntar Airport is a scenic 19 km away.

The Accommodation

Designed like a cocoon rising from the earth - much like an anthill - the rooms are set across three levels, with most offering breathtaking views of snow - covered mountains in winter.

Each room is named after a place in Himachal known for its rich art and culture. With minimalist, elegant interiors and contemporary comforts, every room maximizes natural light and mountain views.

All non-smoking rooms come equipped with:

- Large flat-screen televisions
- Tea/coffee makers
- Heating during winters

Nearly all rooms are accessible via elevator.

- 2 Superior Queen Rooms(325 sq. ft. value-for-money rooms near the pool, with scenic views and inviting comfort.)

Dining

Ras Turant (Restaurant)

Inspired by the grand feasts of Himachal, this all-day dining restaurant serves locally inspired cuisine using fresh, regionally sourced ingredients.

The 80-ft mural along the wall depicts everyday life in Kullu - showcasing its flora, fauna, music, festivals, food, craft, and culture.

The installation Ek Paao Zameen highlights soils collected from spiritually significant sites - a tribute to Earth as the foundation of all culture. Trees within the space are preserved with colourful covers, blending art and nature.

- Breakfast: 08:00 – 10:30 hrs
- Lunch: 12:30 – 14:30 hrs
- Dinner: 19:30 – 22:00 hrs

Chajja (Open-Air Dining)

Adjoining the restaurant, this breezy outdoor sit-out offers counter seating with uninterrupted views of the mountains.
