JODHPUR

UMAID BHAWAN PALACE JODHPUR

Umaid Bhawan Palace, the golden hued desert sandstone monument is the last of the great palaces of India and the principal residence of the royal family of Jodhpur. Perched high on Chittar Hill above the desert capital of Jodhpur, it inspires exotic views of the historical 'blue' city and the intimidating Mehrangarh Fort. Discover a fascinating past and an enchanting present at Umaid Bhawan Palace, located 4.5 kilometres from the airport and close to key attractions like Mehrangarh Fort, Clock Tower, Rao Jodha Desert Park, Jaswant Thada and Kaylana Lake, makes it a perfect blend of accessibility and grandeur.

Set among 26 acres of verdant gardens with dancing peacocks, Umaid Bhawan Palace has been thoughtfully restored, and is a living testimony to the royal ethos of India. The rooms and suites are decorated in a unique Art Deco style and are a charming blend of princely grandeur and modern conveniences.

Umaid Bhawan Palace has its own museum and a beautiful subterranean indoor and outdoor swimming pools decorated with images of the zodiac signs. Soak in the original architecture of an inimitable bygone era within the walls of this most magnificent palace, or stroll through the lush Baradari lawns. Once the sole preserve of princes and kings, Umaid Bhawan Palace offers its guests a taste of fine living and luxury in the romance of royalty
