DISCOVER THE BOLD NEW VIBE OF BHARATPUR

Bharatpur, the administrative headquarters of Chitwan district, is a bustling city in Nepal, in the foothills of the Himalayas. It is strategically important since the main arterial highway connecting Nepal to India surges through it. Chitwan is home to various ethnic groups, including the Tharu people, whose unique culture, traditions, and way of life can be experienced first-hand in the villages surrounding the central city. Bharatpur is also the gateway to the world-famous Chitwan National Park. Home to the one-horned rhino, this habitat also includes tigers and elephants and is a paradise for bird watchers and adventure enthusiasts.

Vivanta Chitwan, Bharatpur, is one of the most vibrant hotels in Bharatpur. Only the second Vivanta to open in Nepal puts you at the heart of all the action.

Close to the city's shopping precincts, business districts, educational institutes, the main highway, and the airport, our new hotel, Vivanta Chitwan, Bharatpur, blends accessibility, amiability and desirability. With 45 well-appointed rooms that will make guests feel right at home. An open-to-sky pool with a bar alongside for pleasant interludes any time of the day. A buzzing all-day restaurant, Mynt is destined to become the go-to restaurant in Chitwan. And a brace of banquet halls – Diamond 1 and Diamond 2 – will host many a glittering gala.

Our contemporary accommodation options ensure you're ideally located for business, celebrations, exploration, or a quick getaway in Bharatpur. Each room is equipped with free high-speed internet, a workstation, a 43" LED Smart TV, responsive climate control, an electronic safe, tea and coffee facilities, and much more.
